DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to applicant's amendment filed September 14, 2007.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1, 3 and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over in Miyajima et al. (U.S. 2003/0136962) in combination with Sato et al. (U.S. 6,081,305).
4. Miyajima (e.g. Fig. 1, 2) discloses:

(cl. 1) a device comprising: a semiconductor substrate (14); a pixel cell array integrated (24; e.g. Fig. 1) with the semiconductor substrate; a liquid crystal layer (200) in contact with the pixel cell array (e.g. Fig. 2); a substantially transparent protective cover (500; Par. 0031) coupled to the liquid crystal layer; and a base (100) coupled to the semiconductor substrate wherein thermal expansion characteristics of the base are substantially similar to thermal expansion characteristics of the protective cover (e.g. both made from same material like glass; Par. 0031);
5. Miyajima and further discloses that it protective cover and base are composed of the substantially the same material/ the same (glass) with the protective cover having a first thickness (Fig. 2), but does not appear to disclose the dimensions of its base having substantially the first thickness, that a chip carrier is coupled to the base or use of an Ultra High Pressure light source to emit light a condenser lens to condense the light, a display device to receive the condensed light and to emit image light, the display device comprising a projector lens or to project the image light.

6. However, applicant has not disclosed that the thickness is for a particular unobvious purpose, produce an unexpected result, or are otherwise critical. As such, the selected dimension would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, since it has been held that mere dimensional limitations are prima facie obvious absent a disclosure that the limitations are for a particular unobvious purpose, produce an unexpected result, or are otherwise critical. See, for example, In re Rose, 220 F.2d 459, 105 USPQ 237 (CCPA 1955); In re Rinehart, 531 F.2d 1048, 189 USPQ 143 (CCPA 1976); Gardner v. TEC Systems, Inc., 725 F.2d 1338, 220 USPQ 777 (Fed. Cir. 1984), cert. denied, 469 U.S. 830, 225 USPQ 232 (1984); In re Dailey, 357 F.2d 669, 149 USPQ 47 (CCPA 1966).

7. Sato utilizes a chip carrier (e.g. light device, 740 is not floating but connected/coupled to a carrier/ mounting surface via 550); an Ultra High Pressure light source to emit light (700; Fig. 18); a condenser lens (730) to condense the light; a display device (740) to receive the condensed light and to emit image light, the display device comprising: a projector lens (750) to project the image light.

8. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to incorporate the additional features cited above from Sato with the device of Miyajima in order to provide an image on a projection screen as taught by Sato (760).

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 5, 6, 10, 28 and 29 are allowable.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments regarding his amended claims of claims 1, 3 and 27 are found unpersuasive. The amended claim merely incorporates the features of canceled claim 4, which was previously addressed by examiner. Applicant alleges that Sato does not disclose a carrier coupled to Sato's base, 500. Examiner respectfully disagrees. Sato's base, 500 and terminal 550 are mounted within/on valve 740; hence, the valve performs the function of a carrier to be contained within a projection type display.

Conclusion

11. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
